Talking Drums - free drumming workshop

Monday 24th August, 7.00pm at the Princess Royal Centre for the Performing Arts

An initiative of the Music sub-committee, the free Talking Drum Workshops were launched in July and mark the first in a series of planned free workshops, which will include guitar, live sound and recording. The workshops are run by local musicians for local musicians and also those interested in learning or developing skills. All levels of experience are welcome.

The aim of the workshop initiative is to build a stronger community amongst musicians and give an opportunity for sharing tips and advice.

Gormley Summer Tours

Learn more about the Antony Gormley figures installed at Castle Cornet, and the artist himself every Friday from 4pm throughout August and September.

Leading the tours is local history of art student Sophie Marquis and the tours have been organised in conjunction with the Guernsey Museum and Art Gallery.

The tours are free with no booking required and, due to the 'Pop in for a Pound' scheme running after 4pm, entry to the Castle is only £1.

Busking in St Peter Port

This Summer busking is being trialled in the streets of St Peter Port. Anyone interested in busking is asked to register their interest by contacting Paul Belben at the Guernsey Information Centre via paul.belben@cultureleisure.gov.gg or 723552. This is a GAC and Culture & Leisure initiative.

WE NEED TO HEAR FROM YOU: Can you play or do you own any Traditional Guernsey Songs/Music?

Please contact Louise Gilligan on 739747 or email info@artsdevelopment.gg.

Community Arts Development Officer

We are delighted to announce that we have appointed the new Community Arts Development Officer. Laura Simpson will begin her new role on the 14th September. She joins the GAC with a background in Performing Arts and experience in delivering Community Arts initiatives and schemes in the UK. Laura will be based in the Guernsey Information Centre, alongside the Arts Development Team.

Community Arts are about accessibility, developing self-respect for individuals and for communities, new ways of expression and being comfortable with the arts.

Look out for the new poems now installed on Island Coachways' Buses as part of our Poems on the Buses Scheme, initiated by the Film Poetry and Prose sub-committee.

Many thanks goes to the sponsors; Norman Piette, Beaucette Marina, The Peninsula, The Press Shop, Ritual Beauty and Amour.
